-Mr. Hugh Stewart filed his bond and charge of the duties of County Commissioner on Monday last, vice J. H. Pierce, Esq., resigned.

-Henry Hufford destroyed a swarm of bees the other day in order to secure the fruits of their industry during the season, and the result was 6½ gallons of strained honey and four gallons of comb filled with honey. A good yield. -There are many offices more pleasant about this time of year. He is compelled Hattie Hunt, vocalist, and Mr. E. L. Blue to listen to some very unpleasant language about special assessments, incompleted ditches, etc., by those paying their taxes. -Sweet repose is always enjoyed by those who take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It soothes disturbed feelings brought on by a cold, and positively cures coughs, sore throat, &c., &c. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

-Why do not our musical people form themselves into a Philharmonic Society There is plenty of talent in the place and if properly organized, and well conducted would do much toward advancing music in our midst.

-Lima Gazette: The Toledo narrow gauge railway will soon be completed to Cellina, and the route from Cellina south to Dayton is being rapidly pushed lorward. It is expected to be open from Toledo to Dayton by the new year.

Smart Weed and Beliac with the other ingredients used in the best porus plasters, make Carter's S. W. & B. Back-sche Plasters the best in the market. Price 25 cents.

-It was not necessary for any one in this vicinity to be without a turkey, goose, chicken,duck, pheasant, or quail yesterday, judging from the decorated fronts of our meat markets. We have reason to feel proud of the enterprise of our butchers. -The cold wave seems to have been gen eral all over the country. It has given us good roads, livened up business and 7 inches of nice clear ice in the river, which has set a number to work putting houses in shape to harvest the ice crop. -CHAS. L. ROSSITER, 195 Summit St. Toledo, Ohio, says :- I would not take one 6 30 2 30 thousand dollars for my Excelsior Kidney Pad, if I could not get another. I have gained in three months, therey pounds.gained in See Adv.

-The Criminal docket is occupying the attention of the Court all this as well as last week. The trial of Simon Baker for last week. The trial of Simon Baker for the murder of George Rooney in July last, commenced on Tuesday and it is thought will be closed to-day. Prosecutor Troup, assisted by Hon. Asher Cook, appears in behalf of the State, while the prisoner is represented by Col. J. A. Shanon and Frank A. Baldwin. It is believed that the docket will be cleared up and Court will adjourn to-morrow.

djourn to-morrow. -While it has taken a large force of men nearly three months in the work of building a bridge across the Maumee River, and will undoubtedly require six weeks more to complete the work, dame Nature, with almost lightning rapidity, has con-structed a bridge of crystal in less than 48 hours, which proves that the works of man are not yet to be compared with those of Nature.

-The life of a railroad man is one o danger, and yet there is something enticing about it. It is singular what an intense desire young men have for u railroad job, no matter if it is a dangerous one, as that a score of men stand ready to step glad! into any vacant place, no matter how it is made vacant. - Lima Gazette.

-South Toledo Advertiser : Mr. D. P. Osterhout, who was the successful landlord of the American Hotel during the pas ummer, moving out of it a few weeks since and retiring to private life, purchased the property from Mesers. Cook & Mitchell, Wednesday, and will again assume the management of the house and cater to the wants of the public about the middle of January, Mesers. Williams & Pero, present proprietors, lease not expiring until the 15th of January.

-So our young Dr. J. A. Backus, who has recently located at Grand Rapids, is really married. We heard a rumor to that effect in Toledo last week—that he was seen driving out one of the streets with a Tuesday evening.

-On Saturday night last, Freddie, an eight year old son of Mr. Benjamin Philee hart, died of Dipthetic Croup. His re-mains were interred in the Catholic Ceme-tery Monday forenoon.

-Bro. Balaley, of the Findlay Jeffer is testing the experiment of making a sprightly little five column Daily paper in that city. It requires nerve and enterprise to make the test, and we trust it may prove a success—but have grave fears that it will not. Lecture.-Rev. Mrs. Eliza Carr, the well-known colored Evangelist, will deliver a lecture on the Human Heart, from its natural state to a state of Sanctification, at the M. E. Church, this place, on Monday evening next, Nov. 29. The discourse will be illustrated by beautiful oil paintings, and interspersed with songs. Lecture commences at 7:30. Admission free.

-Rev. G. A. Adams sold to Messrs Kingsbury & Wilson about $200 worth of Kingsbury & Wilson about $200 worth of small fruit this season, such as peaches, raspberries and blackberries, from his amall farm down the river. Besides this he raised all the fruit consumed in his own family and sold some in Toledo. This is mother illustration of what rightly directed industry will produce. There are many with large tracts of land who find it difficult to make a scanty living for their family from it.

-We present in another column the There was a scarcity of newspapers and Bazer, which are the best of the best publications in the country. But this has become so firmly established in the public matters.

—We understand that D. D. Ames, Esq., County Surveyor elect, has sold his farm near Haskins and has rented property in and will remove his family to Bowling Green, soon.
